

Cults Across America

DEMONSTRATION

Prepare for an unholy war the likes of which you've never seen. In Jeff Tidball's Cults Across America, cults and factions from the Cthulhu Mythos wage war over the United States. The land of opportunity will never be the same.

Players take charge of an entire faction of frothing, foaming fanatics. Command cultist cells, high priests, tanks, nuclear reactors, the national guard, the Ambassador from Uruguay, the President of the United States, and even Cthulhu himself. Start the Plague, race in the Mythos 500 aboard a Satanic Pushcart, and invade the Dreamlands. What could be more fun than sacking Waco with Ghatanothoa at your back and the Necronomicon in hand?
