

You are cordially invited to contribute to the resolution of our recent misadventures, by attending the greatest casino in all of time and space.

The Butterfly Effect.

Here, we will settle our differences in a final battle of wits, luck, and gamesmanship, as well as providing the unique opportunities that you have come to expect from the Winds of Change, regardless of iteration.

One way or another, we will see a resolution to this unpleasantness. As it has negatively affected humanity – in some ways due to your actions as well – we think it only correct that you be part of the solution.

With anticipation,

Chikutorpt, Chikutorpt, Chikutorpt,

Chikutorpt, Chikutorpt,

Chikutorpt, and Chikutorpt
