MEET THE MINIONS ...

MISKATONIC UNIVERSITY

Dr. Henry Armitage leads a band of students on their explorations into the Mythos. Known for its unrivalled collection of rare books — a collection watched over by Dr. Armitage — Miskatonic University attracts an eclectic collection of students.

Dr. Henry Armitage — Learned Librarian
You'd better not try to nick his Necronomicon.

Herbert West — Reanimator
He brings good things to life, but but has very unorthodox ideas about medicine.

Asenath Waite — Daddy's Girl
A wild child from a wealthy Innsmouth family, she proves that sometimes father doesn't know best. She's the kind of girl who will turn up on your doorstep in the dead of night ... dead.

Walter Gilman — Manic Mathematician
Math major Walter Gilman has been taking an unusual interest in the old witch-house. Sometimes familiar things can be the most dangerous.

Edward Derby — Aspiring Poet
Poet Edward Derby only has eyes for Asenath Waite. He'll be reading selections from Azathoth and Other Horrors at the coffeehouse this Thursday.

ARKHAM SANITARIUM

Following the strange case of Charles Dexter Ward, Dr. Marius Willett has taken charge of a sanitarium financed by the late Ward's family. He's gathered an unusual collection of patients, along with his trusty cat.

Dr. Willett — Meddling Medic
He's responsible for all of the patients in the Charles Dexter Ward.

Cassilda & Camilla — Carcosan Girls Gone Wild
The King in Yellow has left the building... but he left his groupies behind.

Henry Akeley — Whisperer in Darkness
He's, well, a sentient fungus masquerading as a human being. But he's really a fun guy when you get to know him.

Tigger-Man — Faithful Feline
This determined mouser is deeply concerned about the rats in the walls.

Randolph Carter — Dreamland Believer
One of the hep cats of Ulthar, who raves about fantastic lands and terrible monsters that only exist in his dreams.

MEET THE MINIONS ...

INNSMOUTH

Though not all related by blood, the members of this family are united by their shared home of Innsmouth.

Barnabas Marsh — Town Elder

Town patriarch Barnabas Marsh vehemently denies rumors that the town's residents have mingled their blood with foul fish-frogs. It's not easy turning green, after all.

Pth'thya-I'yi — Marsh Matriarch

Barnabas' grandmother has come up from Y'hantlei to visit her great-grandchildren. She's incensed by the squamous accusations against them.

Joe Sargent — Bus Driver

The disturbing Joe Sargent drives the only bus that goes to the coastal town of Innsmouth. You might want to take the next one.

Zadok Allen — Doddering Drunkard

When he's had a few drinks, he's the biggest teller of tentacular tales. "Twas a shoggoth who drove me to drink. I never had the courtesy to thank it."

Anna Tilton — Curious Curator

She's heard strange stories about Innsmouth, and thinks there's something fishy about the town.

THE WHATELEYS

One of the old families of Dunwich, the Whateleys are much decayed, given to wandering through thunderstorms and trying to read great odorous books. They're creepy and they're kooky, mysterious and related to Yog-Sothoth.

Old Whateley — Weird Wizard

Old Whateley wants the best for his family, which is why he arranged a match between his daughter Lavinia and the extradimensional entity known as Yog-Sothoth. He dun't keer what folks think.

Lavinia Whateley — Mommy Dearest

Lavinny's read some, an' has seed some things the most o' ye only tell about. So back off, nerd.

Rutherford Whateley — White Sheep of the Family

One of the rare "undecayed" Whateleys, Rutherford is a grave disappointment to the family. He just earned his MBA from Harvard, and is having some trouble settling in at his great-uncle's house.

Wilbur Whateley — Heir Apparent

He was only fifteen when he went to college ... to steal books.

Junior — Bouncing Baby ... Thing

Wilbur's younger brother inherited more of their father's rugged good looks. While Wilbur can usually pass as human, little Junior has more trouble, and spends most of his time in the woodshed eating cows.
