THE DIRTY DRAGON DOZEN

Included in this document are twelve archetypes from the Feng Shui 2 roleplaying game, ready to play in any FS2 scenario at conventions, game days, or other feng shui site. Refer to the key for additional explanation about icons, and see chapter 2 in FS2 for full details about how archetypes work and how to advance your character.

ARCHETYPE KEY

Twelve of the archetypes for Feng Shui 2 are presented on p. 3-32. A key for all the symbols and numbers on them is on the next page.
Character Name

Melodramatic Hook

3.

Chi Flow Perception

Your base damage with a punch or kick is 10, not 7.

Prodigious Leap

Spend 1 Chi and 1 shot to make a horizontal, vertical, or diagonal leap of up to 26 m. Also costs 1 Chi, if your current Chi is less than 2.

Flying Windmill Kick

Spend 4 shots to make a Martial Arts kick attack. If the attack hits, you may make another kick attack on the same opponent at 0 shot cost. You may continue doing this until an attack fails, or until you land a third hit.

King on the Water

In a fight under the adverse condition, Torrential Rain, spend 1 Chi and 0 shots to gain a +2 Immunity bonus until end of fight or end of condition.

Willow Step

Spend 1 Chi and 1 shot to gain +2 Defense against non-Martial Arts attacks until next keyframe.

Aerial Pushaway

When an enemy misses you with a Martial Arts attack, spend 1 shot to fly up to 14 m backwards away from your enemy. Regen 1 spend 1 Chi.

Omnicol Flutter

Spend 1 Chi. Until the end of the fight, any attack you immediately precede with a Prodigious Leap gets +1 bonus.

"Was That Supposed to Hurt?"

With your size and strength, you cast an intimidating shadow across the scene of any fight. You don't hit as often as other combatants, but when you do, look out! Your massive frame allows you to withstand blows that would flatten a smaller fighter. Most people assume you're stupid, and maybe you are—but maybe not, letting you play their misperceptions to your advantage. You may have worked as a manual laborer, or as a guard of some kind. You might be a quiet, gentle giant or a bullying loudmouth. You are definitely a mountain of determination and endurance.

Make best use of your mammoth damage by going toe-to-toe with the group's major foes. To specialize in taking out mooks, play a Killer or Masked Avenger.

Awesoming Up

When you gain an advancement, you may select from the following options:

Add new archetype schtick—Mounting Fury II: When your Mounting Fury bonus allows you to hit an opponent you would otherwise have missed, add +1 Damage.

Add new archetype schtick—Mounting Fury III: As Mounting Fury II, but your Damage Bonus is +2.

Add new archetype schtick—Mounting Fury IV: As Mounting Fury II, but your Damage Bonus is +3.

Add 1 to your Establishing Shot bonus.

Add 1 to your Strength Check bonus.

Add 1 to your Constitution Check bonus.

Add new archetype schtick—Meat Shield: As an interrupt when a nearby ally takes Wound Points, spend 1 Fortune to take those Wound Points, and a Mark of Death, yourself. If the hit would have taken the ally above 35 Wound Points, take two Marks of Death.

Add one schtick from any of these Martial Arts paths (provided you have its prerequisite, if any): Banisher, Death Punch, Montage, Outlaw, Sword, Tiger, Weapon Master, Wing Chun, Wushu.

Add one schtick from any of these Driving schticks (provided you have its prerequisites, if any): Counterslam, Dazed and Contused, Hot Pursuit, I Just Painted That, Ramming Speed I-III, Swerve I-III, Takes a Licking, Tight Roll I-III.

Add a skill you do not have from this list, at a rating of 9: Driving, Fix-It, Info (any), Medicine, Sabotage.

Increase a skill value from less than 12 to 12.

Increase a skill value of 12+ by 1.

Increase your backup attack to your main attack minus 1.

Establishing Shot
Your first Martial Arts attack of any fight gets a +2 bonus.

Mounting Fury I
If you miss with a Martial Arts attack, you gain a +1 cumulative bonus to your next Martial Arts attack. The bonus resets to 0 after you hit, and at the end of the fight.

Very Big
You make Up Checks and gain Marks of Death only when you reach 50 Wound Points. Impairment of -1 occurs only at 40 Wound Points; Impairment of -2 at 45 Wound Points.

Strong As An Ox
Add 3 to your Damage on any successful Martial Arts strike, including strikes with hand-to-hand weapons. (Damage Values for your starting weapons already include this bonus.) You can use absurdly large objects, like motorcycles, as improvised weapons. You also get +3 to all Strength Checks.

Healthy As A Horse
You get a +3 bonus to Constitution Checks.

The Bigger They Come...
Toughness is reduced by -5 if you reach 50 or more Wound Points, until all Death Checks from this fight have been resolved.

†Your Martial Arts may be modified temporarily by your Mounting Fury Schtick.
"Hey, I may not have the faintest clue what’s going on here, but I’m an American, dammit! And that means I got two strong American fists, and a big American heart—and a big American gun!"

You might be nobody special, but that’s the source of all your awesome. Unlike some archetypes you could name, you work for a living—probably in a good, honest, vanishing blue-collar job. Maybe you’re a factory worker, a truck driver, a plumber, or a sailor. You may be on vacation when the action begins, or find yourself in a crossfire as the result of a job-related errand. Aside from taking care of your melodramatic hook, all you really want to do is sit down with a can of beer and watch some sports at the local bar. But somehow trouble always comes looking for you. That’s because of your basic, essential decency and/or stupidity. And also your peculiar luck. On one hand, your luck gets you through situations that even you don’t believe you could survive. But on the other hand, your luck tends to get you into weird and frightening situations to begin with because the good guys need your help. You may not be the smartest, or the strongest, or the most skilled person in the world. But you’re a good guy, and “Good guys always finish—ugh! Hey, whad’ you shoot me for? Oh, man, now I’m bleeding… howzabout a knuckle sandwich?"

A good choice if you like to play mechanically simple characters.

AWESOMING UP

WHEN YOU GAIN AN ADVANCEMENT, YOU MAY SELECT FROM THE FOLLOWING OPTIONS:

Add any one of these Guns schticks (provided you have its prerequisite, if any): Bank Shot, Battle Scavenge I-III, Both Guns Blazing I-V, Click Click Toss I-III, Covering Fire, Disarming Shot, Flesh Wound, For the Squad, Lone Wolf, Scattering Fire, Stop Right There!, The Way the Wind Blows, Wild Grenade.

Add one schtick from any of these Martial Arts paths (provided you have its prerequisite, if any): Banisher, Death Punch, Dragon, Drunken Master, Flame, Fox, Healer, Hundred Names, Montage, Outlaw, Ninja, Nunchaku, Tiger, Weapon Master, Welcoming Sky, Willow, Wing Chun, Wushu.

Add Fix-It, Gambling, Leadership, or any new Info skill at 12.

“TECHNICALLY IT’S UNSAFE TO STORE SOMETHING LIKE THIS HERE, BUT...”

They call you a gun nut—accent on the gun. Well, also, come to think of it, accent on the nut. Okay, okay, sure, they apply equally. Except that you don’t just love guns. You delight in ordnance of all kinds, the more explosive the better. Your weird little hideout bristles with rare, illegal, and just plain impractical weaponry. How you acquired it all with no visible means of a support may be revealed in the course of play, or remain a mystery hardly worth addressing. You don’t shoot your firearms as well as you lovingly care for them, so when you finally get a chance to pull the trigger for real, the results skew toward the slapstick as well as the lethal. When you meet real deal shooting and killing types, you try to contain your drooling enthusiasm, but when things get hot the whooping and hollering starts. Mostly you come off as a lovable oddball. In addition to your pistolophilia, you likely spout various paranoid beliefs. When you stumble into the Chi War, you may be as surprised as any when you discover how right you’ve been!

AWESOMING UP

WHEN YOU GAIN AN ADVANCEMENT, YOU MAY SELECT FROM THE FOLLOWING OPTIONS:

Add any one of these Guns schticks (provided you have its prerequisite, if any): Bag Full of Guns III-IV, Bank Shot, Battle Scavenge I-III, Blam Blam Epigram, Bloody but Unbowed, Both Guns Blazing I-V, Carnival of Carnage I-IV, Click Click Toss I-III, Covering Fire, Disarming Shot, Fast Draw I-IV, Flesh Wound, For the Squad, Hair-Trigger Neck Hairs, Lone Wolf, Signature Weapon, Scattering Fire, Stop Right There!, Soul of the Sniper, Take the Shot, The Way the Wind Blows.

If you are from, or have ever been to, the Future juncture, add any non-Cyborg Scroungetech schtick. When asked to make Scroungetech Checks, use your Guns AV.

Add any one of these Driving schticks (provided you have its prerequisite, if any): A Ride is a Ride, Counterslam, Custom Ride, Dazed and Contused, Floor It I-III, Hightailing It, Hold on Tight I-III, Hot Pursuit, Laying Rubber, Lightning Speed, Objects in the Mirror, Obstacle Course, Oh No You Don’t, Ramming Speed I-III, Swerve I-III, Takes a Licking, Tarmac Warrior, Tight Roll I-III, Tools of the Trade, Vroom!

FULL METAL NUTBALL

CHARACTER NAME

CHARACTER CONCEPT

MELODRAMATIC HOOK

READY RESUPPLY
When an ally gets a Way-Awful Failure on an attack, is disarmed, or fails a Reload Check, you may spend 1 shot as an interrupt: that ally may make an attack as an interrupt at a shot cost of 0 and gains +2 Damage (stackable) until the end of the fight.

NUTBALL LUCK
Spend 1 Fortune and 0 shots to gain +2 Defense vs. Guns attacks and +3 Toughness vs. explosion and debris damage until end of sequence.

BAG FULL OF GUNS II
You rotate through a selection of guns over the course of a fight. Start each fight with a revolver (9/2/6.) Each time you attack a named foe and fail to dish out more than 15 Wound Points, spend 0 shots to move to the next item in this gun list:
- Colt 1911A 10/2/4
- Desert Eagle .357 Magnum 11/3/3
- Chiappa Rhino 12/3/5
- Mossberg Special Purpose 13/5/4
- homemade shotgun 14/5/4
- homemade rifle 15/5/1
Homemade weapons fall apart at end of fight. Only you can use them.

OOPS, FORGOT THAT ONE
You always fail Concealment Checks. If searched for weapons, the searchers always find everything you're carrying and completely disarm you. Even if you said you got rid of all your weapons, they always find at least a hidden ankle piece. (This does not mean that you always have a weapon.)

WILD GRENADE
When you miss with a grenade, you may spend 1 Fortune. Characters between you and your target do not make Fortune rolls to avoid it. Instead you and a nearby character of your choice, other than the target, take 20 Damage from flying debris.

Gene Freak

"DON'T GO! I DIDN'T ASK TO BE THIS WAY!"

Bizarre energies released by the cataclysmic destruction of a futuristic hyper-Orwellian regime swirled through your world, altering the DNA of hapless survivors. Most died, but a few survived, twisted, traumatized, but able to manifest previously unknown bodily feats. Some energies escaped through poisoned feng shui sites into the present day. Often believing themselves to have been changed by brushes with ordinary radiation or other experiments gone awry, a handful of moderns also acquired credibility-defying super powers.

Most gene freaks want to be left alone. Maybe you do, too, but a melodramatic hook prevents it. Or maybe you’ve decided to take an active, heroic part in the Chi War in search of a cure, or to show that some cursed with unwanted might can wield it with responsibility and discipline.

Mutant Punch

Make hand-to-hand attacks using your Mutant Attack Value.

Very Strong

Spent 1 shot. Until end of fight, add 3 to your Damage on any successful hand-to-hand strike (using your Mutant Attack Value) including strikes with hand-to-hand weapons. You can use absurdly large objects, like parking meters, as improvised weapons.

Very Fast

Spent 2 Genome points. Until end of sequence, the shot costs of all your actions decreases by 1, with a minimum of 1 per action. You can move up to 30 m per sequence.

Force Shield

Spent 1 Genome point and 1 shot; your Defense increases by 1 until end of sequence.

Push

Make a 3-shot ranged attack, Damage Value 11, using your Mutant Attack Value. If you deliver a Smackdown, the target flies X meters through the air directly away from you, where X = the number of Wound Points you dish out.

Berserk Rage

Spent 1 Genome point and 1 shot; your Mutant Attack Value increases by 2 until the end of the sequence.

Pain Eater

When your attack takes a foe from 0 to 1 Impairment, or from 1 to 2 Impairment, regain 3 spent Genome points. When an ally's attack takes a foe from 0 to 1 Impairment, or from 1 to 2 Impairment, regain 1 spent Genome point.

You are a loyal, team-playing officer of the law who happens to be about as adept in the martial arts as you are with your service revolver. You overcome the bad guys not by being bigger or tougher but by sheer pluck and perseverance. When you punch a huge slab of a goon in the jaw, it hurts your hand. When you leap from a bridge to a passing hovercraft, you feel the impact roll up through your body. When fireworks set your jacket aflame mid-fight, you struggle awkwardly to put it out. You’re not the most graceful combatant of the Chi War, or able to manifest the bizarre fu powers of the ancient masters. But no matter how many times they knock you down, you get back up, shake off the pain, and keep running after the wrongdoers.

Take the Shot

Add +4 Guns vs. targets using hostages as human shields.
You used to work as a professional assassin. Maybe you served an intelligence agency. More likely you whacked people for the triads. You prided yourself on cool, calculated efficiency and the ability to get the job done without getting involved. You know everything there is to know about the acquisition, handling, and employment of firearms. You've been perforated by bullets more times than you can count. It's what you call an occupational hazard. The intellectual puzzle of the perfect kill mattered to you then. The value of your life, or those of your victims, never factored into the equation... until now. Possibly through your melodramatic hook, you are about to plunge into the Chi War. Now you have the power to change history with your trigger finger, instead of just wiping out unsuspecting targets. And maybe, just maybe, that gives you a chance to redeem yourself...

“THERE ARE SOME THINGS MAN WAS MEANT NOT TO KNOW. IT’S MY JOB TO HUNT DOWN THOSE THINGS AND KILL THEM.”

Even in junctures where magic is rare and difficult to perform, supernatural manifestations still ooze from the world’s dark corners, sometimes with lethal results. Many large police jurisdictions secretly maintain small units of officers trained in the mystic arts. These cops are able to take on the occasional renegade sorcerer or shaman who might pop up, and can dispatch demons and ghosts without freaking out. You are one of these cops. You’re probably a loner; the system is set up so you have little contact with regular law enforcement officials. Other officers think you’re nuts, if they know who you are at all. You have built up tough mental defenses against the creatures of the night. To normal folks, you come off as grim or aloof. You might think of yourself as a holy warrior, implacably gunning down anything that smacks of the occult. Or maybe you wish you could build a bridge between the world of the supernatural and the world of everyday humanity. Magic cops are often drawn into the Chi War as they hunt down agents of the Lotus or escapees from the Netherworld, discovering that there is much hidden beneath reality’s mundane veneer that even they know nothing about.

Working stiff
“YOUR KUNG FU IS STRONG. YOU SHALL BE A WORTHY OPPONENT.”

An accomplished young student of one or more schools of hand-to-hand combat, you are as effective with your bare hands as when wielding traditional hand-to-hand weapons. Embarking on a lifetime’s study, you have recently mastered a number of esoteric chi powers. Most importantly, you have absorbed a profound truth: martial arts are more than just a series of combat moves. They represent an ancient and learned discipline, one that preaches restraint, discipline, and humility. You work hard to live up to that philosophy. You choose your fights carefully, and work to uphold the values you have learned, such as reverence for elders, respect for the traditions of the past, and self-sacrifice for the greater good. You probably work at a humble job, caring little for material goods. The only goal you consider worthy of pursuing is the physical and spiritual perfection attained by the great masters of the past. When you encounter the Chi War, your dedication to honor and self-perfection leads you into the battle against evil without a second thought.

"FREEZE, SCUMBAG!"

The Maverick Cop is a plainclothes detective assigned to a major crime unit of a big city. You may work undercover, you may be in an anti-mob unit, or you may be a homicide detective. Good-looking but slovenly, you may cultivate a drinking problem and definitely have a personal life in a state of serious disorder. Despite the fact that you are one yourself, you’ve always had a problem with authority figures. You see yourself as a loner, but this may date back only as far as your last partner getting killed, or the origin point of some other melodramatic hook. You are always on the verge of being fired and are often on suspension. You keep your job only because your gruff superior officer has a secret soft spot for you, and because you get results. Although you always get the job done in the end, everything seems to conspire to make you look bad. People connected to your investigations have a habit of getting killed. Witnesses get snuffed. Bystanders fall like tenpins whenever you take part in a firefight. Most of all, you never seem to be able to just apprehend a crook. It’s not like you deliberately set out to empty the contents of your high-caliber revolver into each and every scumbag you’re supposed to arrest. You warn them even, tell them they shouldn’t be feeling lucky, shouldn’t ever get you riled. Punks never learn.

As an experienced investigator you have accumulated contacts throughout society: from well-heeled clients who can afford to hire you, to the enforcers of the law you must occasionally skirt, to the seediest elements of the criminal underworld. You most often work for lawyers, digging up information for use in court cases. When one corporation sues another, you find yourself poring over corporate ledgers and sifting for obscure references in old business publications. You’ve worked for insurance companies, keeping plaintiffs under surveillance to see if they’re as injured as they claim to be. And then of course there are divorce cases. Although you may have gotten into your line of work because you fell in love with the film noir world of Philip Marlowe and Sam Spade, you’ve spent more time hunched over a laptop performing background checks than you have slugging it out with gangsters and crooked cops. Maybe that’s why, when you sniff out the first clues that point you to the existence of the Chi War, you’re ready to chuck the real-life world of the private detective in favor of the fantastic adventure you’ve always dreamed of.

“Hey, when do we get to stop the evil scientists from taking over the world? HuH, HuH? When do we? Can I play with that gun? Ah, c’mon, I won’t wreck it or nothin’. That sword is really cool. Can we stop the evil scientists now, can we, can we, huH, huH? Are we there yet?”

Life is simple. You’re a kid. You like to have fun. But there are these bad guys who want to wreck everybody’s happiness. They think they’re better than everyone else. They want to be the boss of you. So even though boring old grownups want to keep you safely tucked away somewhere stupid, you’re gonna do something about it. After all, why should they get all the fun of shooting guns off and watching explosions and meeting cool monsters and all that stuff? Sure, you’re not exactly a killing machine, like you plan to be when you grow up. But you’re not bad for someone whose age isn’t in the double digits yet. You’re the best kung fu kid in your class, and you’ve learned some tricks you weren’t supposed to learn yet. And you’re fast, you know how to duck, and bad guys underestimate you. Chi War—hey, what could be cooler?

You don’t have to play the Scrappy Kid as comic relief. (And shouldn’t, if your GM and the rest of the group want to maintain a consistently dark and gritty tone in your Feng Shui 2 series.) Maybe you’re a grim little warrior, forced by tragedy to fight back in a grownup world. Just because you haven’t hit puberty yet doesn’t mean that you don’t have a threatening squint worthy of Clint Eastwood.

You can describe this as something else appropriate, like a yo-yo attack, if desired.
You are a master of the occult arts, studied in the ancient techniques of channeling and transforming chi energy into a supernatural force, bent by your will. Some say this corrupts chi energy into what it was not meant to be. You call those people fools.

Although there are many ways to do harm to an opponent, none has quite the awe-inspiring effect of an energy bolt cast from a magician's hand. You have some trouble manifesting your great powers in later junctures, such as our own and 1850, where the chi flow has been suppressed. But in other junctures, you access your unearthly abilities without impediment. However, in most places superstitious cretins assume that all sorcerers pursue sinister ends. True, most who follow the ways of the occult wind up doing great harm to the people. They have been corrupted by exposure to the Underworld, the home of demons and evil spirits. Or perhaps they have been seduced by their own lust for power. But that does not describe you! You have the will to resist, where weaker minds failed. Given the bad reputation of sorcerers, you have learned to keep your mystic abilities hidden as you fight for the right side of the Chi War.

Along with the sorcerer’s versatility comes some additional complexity. You will want to own a copy of the book to play it to the fullest.
