

THE MURDERED THIRD

An optional two-player variant.

Place this card with this face down, between you, where a third player would sit.

After both living players take their turns normally, flip a card from the draw pile to the discard pile, and follow the special actions for the Murdered Third, listed on the back of this card. This effect cannot be blocked.

Do this every round, when a third player's turn would be.

These actions are used only during the Murdered Third's turn. Living players' cards still have the effects listed in the rules.
